

P/T Physical Education - Fulham Senior School (0.4)

Fulham Senior School is seeking to appoint a well-qualified and enthusiastic Teacher of Physical Education with experience of teaching to the full age and ability range to join this brand new coeducational senior school in West London.

This offers a rare and challenging opportunity for experienced teachers to take forward their subject within an innovative educational establishment at the creation of Fulham Senior School. P.E. enjoys a high profile within the school and sport is an important part of the curriculum.

Starting with 35 pupils and a staff of 8 in 2018, the school will build up year on year to a school of 280 pupils in 2021.

Educational Vision:

The school will provide an outstanding, enterprising education for girls and boys, striving for academic excellence. Through the application of our values, mutual respect, supportive pastoral care and inspirational teaching, we will help every pupil to find their unique talent, and to realise it, for the benefit of all.

- A broad education for boys and girls aged 13 to 18 in the London Borough of Hammersmith & Fulham, supported by Inspired.
- Teaching strategies aimed at raising achievement for boys and girls a wide range of extra-curricular and vocational activities, giving opportunity for all our pupils to achieve success.
- Emphasis on social, personal and business enterprise in curricular and extra-curricular activities. A real commitment to developing entrepreneurial flair, skills and habits in our pupils, to serve the community as well as their later economic well-being.
- A broad and balanced curriculum, with ambitious targets.
- A powerful partnership between school, parents and community.
- Innovative technology to support successful learning, and efficient systems to manage data and communication.
- High standards of pastoral care, where every pupil is known and feels they can find a person to turn to and support them, taking advantage of being a small school.

The Role

The main purpose of the role will be to teach PE but there are opportunities for the successful candidate to share their skills, experience, interests and hobbies within our extensive co-curricular programme that we offer to our pupils. We are a growing school so there will be career progression opportunities within the PE Department including positions to lead on the design of our inter-house programme and establish links for fixtures going forward.

We also have a strong CPD programme and believe in seeking out opportunities to further staff.

Why apply to Fulham Senior School?

- To play an integral role in creating and developing a new department in a school determined to be one of the best.
- Free school lunches every day freshly prepared by our school chef
- Cycle to work scheme

- Great connections to all London tube-lines and over ground routes

Skills and Characteristics for which we are looking include:

1. The ability to be a/or become an outstanding classroom practitioner and coach;
2. Having high expectations of our pupils in terms of learning, achievement and behaviour;
3. Having a sound subject knowledge which they can utilise to challenge all our pupils, including the most able;
4. Having the capacity to contribute to the development of the School's ethos and enterprise activities;
5. Possessing a real 'can do' attitude;
6. Having an ability to engage and motivate young people;
7. Having real enthusiasm to be an integral part of creating a dynamic PE department;
8. The successful candidate should be competent teaching a few of our core PE offers in either football, rugby, tennis, gymnastics, dance, swimming, netball or hockey;
9. Have a commitment to support our enrichment programme by facilitating co-curricular sessions.
